The investor is liable for CGT on any transactions in the units of the underlying unit trust within the wrap funds. Compulsory investments are not subject to CGT. Performance is calculated using net returns (after fees) of the underlying unit trusts, and quoted excluding wrap fund fees. Performance quoted is pre-tax. Fund performance numbers shown are for a notional portfolio and do not reflect the actual performance of the client invested in the wrap fund due to timing differences of investments or disinvestments of the client. Benchmark returns for CPI are based on actual published returns and an estimated one month return for the month of the report date. ASISA Benchmark returns are the ASISA returns available as at the time of reporting.

MANAGER COMMENT

The BRICS bloc have shown their commitment to developing the world and obtaining a large share of the global GDP. The biggest news from the BRICS Summit in August was the addition of new members to the bloc amongst other developments. Globally, the US is continuously looking at ways to tame inflation to achieve the 2% target and have put restrictive monetary and fiscal measures in place, one of them being the need to increase interest rates. On the contrary, China has cut down rates to recover economically after the impact from the Covid pandemic. The ongoing Russia-Ukraine war has had detrimental effects on both countries, and Russia had to significantly raise its benchmark rate to hedge against a declining currency. Locally, the inflation rate continued slowing to a little below the upper end of the 3-6% target range, but the Reserve Bank Governor says there are still some inflation risks to be watched. China has also supplied a donation to South Africa to assist with its energy crisis.

Global equity markets stumbled in August with the MSCI World ending the month at -2.3% in dollar terms. Global Bonds were also recorded at -1.37% month-on-month (m/m) and Global Property at -3.30% m/m respectively in dollar terms. Despite the bulk of the year's equity market returns coming from US-domiciled, mega-cap tech and chip companies, this area of the market held up relatively well and the S&P 500 ended the month at -1.59% in dollar terms. The Footsie (FTSE) declined by 2.50% m/m. Emerging market stocks fared even worse than those in developed markets, ending the month at -6.14% in dollar terms. Chinese companies were the biggest drag. Looking at the bond market, the All Bond Index finished the month at -0.23% with the 1-3 year bonds at 0.91%, 3-7 year bonds at 0.74%, 7-12 year bonds at -0.13% and bonds of above 12 years at -1.10%.

The SA stock market followed global equity markets lower with the FTSE/JSE All Share Index -4.77% m/m, leaving local equities only slightly positive. Industrials and Resources were the biggest drag and ended the month in negative territory at -5.05% and -9.57% respectively. Property ended the month with a positive 0.92%. Financials were at -1.78 m/m and Cash at 0.69% m/m. When it comes to currency, the rand underperformed against the US dollar, ending the month at -6.08%. The local currency was still in negative territory against the euro but fared better at -4.59% m/m. When compared against the British pound and the Japanese yen, the rand ended the month at -4.63% and -2.27%. The rand showed some resilience against the Australian dollar, even though it ended the month at -1.29%.

PORTFOLIO MANAGER

Wade Witbooi
