MANAGER COMMENT

As nations continued the restart of their economies during the month of May supported by vaccinations in the respective populations, the market showed concerns that upside data surprises may result in more persistent inflation. It would force central banks to bring about a premature end to the growth rebound. This emphasises that investors seem to be particularly worried about inflation in the long term and the varied effects it can have on the market. Despite these concerns, economic activity has been very strong over the month of May, due to the ongoing vaccine rollouts allowing economies to gradually re-open, as well as sizeable fiscal support, particularly in the UK and US.

Global equity markets recorded gains for a fourth consecutive month at the end of May. The MSCI World Index returned 1,26% month-on-month in US$ and - 4,24% in ZAR. European equity and US equity markets obtained positive returns over the month. FTSE (£) up 1,11% month-on-month, Euro Stoxx 50 (€) up 2,53% and S&P 500 (US$) up 0,70% month-on-month. European equities once again outperformed other regions. In May, the MSCI Emerging Market Index returned 2,12% month-on-month in US$ and - 3,42% in ZAR. After a very strong run from the start of 2020 to February this year, Asian equities have given back some of their gains in the last quarter before rallying in the latter half of May. Growth stocks have led the decline in Asian equities, due to Chinese growth stocks being corrected (decline in the stock price) by over 20% since February this year. Despite this, emerging market equities outperformed developed market equities for the first time since January. In a trend that has been dominant for the past few quarters, equity markets were dominated by cyclical, value stocks.

Expectations of stronger economic growth and inflation led to a strong rise in global inflation-protected bonds backed by strong demand.

The South African equity market managed to produce another month in the "green", as the FTSE/JSE All Share Index closed the month at 1,56%.

On a sector basis for May, Financials led the pack at 9,17% month-on-month, Industrials closed at 0,90%, and Resources lagging somewhat at -1,39% month-on-month. Noticeable sectors that took a hit in the month of May, include the Technology (- 7,89% month-on-month), Chemicals (- 7,30% month-on-month) and Forestry (-11,57% month-on-month). SA Bonds outperformed Emerging Market peers, as the All Bond Index closed the month at 3,73%. Cash once again gave a mediocre performance, as expected in a low interest rate environment, with the STEFI returning 0,31%.

Our currency continued to show strength and continued its strong run, closing stronger against most major currencies in May. The ZAR gained as much as 5,74% against the US$, followed by 4,11% and 2,99% against the euro and sterling respectively, and was relatively flat relative to the Japanese yen (0,08%).
