The investor is liable for CGT on any transactions in the units of the underlying unit trust within the wrap funds. Compulsory investments are not subject to CGT. Performance is calculated using net returns (after fees) of the underlying unit trusts, and quoted excluding wrap fund fees. Performance quoted is pre-tax. Fund performance numbers shown are for a notional portfolio and do not reflect the actual performance of the client invested in the wrap fund due to timing differences of investments or disinvestments of the client. Benchmark returns for CPI are based on actual published returns and an estimated one month return for the month of the report date. ASISA Benchmark returns are the ASISA returns available as at the time of reporting.

MANAGER COMMENT

October was a risk-on month globally, driven by positive developments on the geo-political front and easing monetary conditions. The Federal Reserve (Fed) took the decision to cut rates by 25 basis points for the third time this year. The Fed's comments suggest they will be on hold until there is a change in incoming data and that the economy is a good place. During the course of the month the EU and United Kingdom managed to strike a revised Brexit deal. Boris Johnson, however, failed to pass the UK parliament vote. In lieu of this the EU granted the UK another extension, this time to 31 January. With an early UK election now called for 12 December 2019, there is some hope that there will finally be a resolution on the EU-UK divorce. There was additional positive sentiment around the announcement of a partially agreed trade deal outline between the US and China. In light of all the developments, emerging market equities delivered 4.09% (in USD), while developed market equities delivered a strong 2.45% (in USD). Global property continued to benefit from the low interest rate environment and the strong consumer; it delivered 2.54% (in USD). As it was a risk-on month bonds lagged somewhat with developed market and emerging market bonds delivering 0.52% and 0.41% respectively (both in USD).

Locally, the Medium Term Budget Policy Statement (MTPBS) took the centre stage. Finance Minister Tito Mboweni painted a gloomy picture of the road the country was going down if drastic action was not taken. This resulted in Moody's putting South African locally denominated debt on negative outlook. On the back of this, the local market had a risk-on month, with equities delivering 3.14% (in ZAR). This was driven by the resources sector that soared 7.27% (in ZAR); gold and platinum miners had a particularly good month delivering 22.04% and 16.66% respectively (both in ZAR). Financials also had a reasonably strong month returning 3.26% (in ZAR). After starting the month off positively, local bonds sold off as a direct result of the MTBPS. They declined 0.35% (in ZAR). Local property delivered 1.89% (in ZAR), while inflation-linked bonds declined 0.14% (in ZAR). Cash delivered 0.59% (in ZAR).

PORTFOLIO MANAGER
